

To all whom these present come – Greetings:

Whereas: Park Central Little Rock, a Global Humanitarian Initiative, is committed to the belief that the issues of world peace and reconciliation embody the deepest hopes of all peoples and remain guiding inspirations for humanity, and that, together, we can make a better place; and

Whereas: Peace Day, first celebrated in Chicago, Illinois, on September 7, 1978, set aside one day each year for people of all backgrounds, faiths, cultures, and ages to join in focusing their wishes, thoughts, or prayers toward peace for the entire planet; and

Whereas: Global crises prompt all of us to work together to convert humanity's noblest aspirations for peace and reconciliation into practical realities for future generations at the beginning of each New Year; and

Whereas: Neighborhoods, USA (NUSA) in conjunction with Park Central Little Rock, encourages neighborhoods and citizens to recognize and work toward the full realization of human capital by promoting peace and reconciliation between all persons and communities,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That

NUSA, a national grassroots organization, as a national voice of local neighborhoods, do hereby proclaim our support for the Global Peace and Reconciliation (GLO-PAR) movement as initiated through Park Central Little Rock, a global humanitarian initiative, and invites all neighborhoods, cities and citizens to honor a cessation of hostilities for the duration of this day and each day going forward.

"At the stroke of midnight
Ripple One Minute of Silence
Into One Minute of Non-Violence.
Today. Everyday. All Day."
